

Contacts

Leigh Richards, leighrichards2010@gmail.com

Lora Lewis, lora.lewis@bbgi.com

Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia announces the 2025 Hall of Fame and Person of the Year Honorees

The Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia Hall of Fame Gala will be held on Friday, November 21, 2025

PHILADELPHIA -- July 29, 2025 – Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia (BPOP) is thrilled to announce its 2025 Hall of Fame Honorees and Person of the Year. Ten outstanding professionals who represent the best in the broadcasting industry.

The 2025 class will be inducted at the annual Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia Hall of Fame Gala, Friday, November 21, 2025, at Live! Casino & Hotel Philadelphia.

The 2025 hosts of the BPOP Hall of Fame gala will once again be 'Hall of Famers' Jim Donovan and Scott Palmer. Jim Donovan, anchor of CBS News Philadelphia's morning and noon newscasts, is a 15-time Emmy Award winner and a 2015 inductee. Scott Palmer, Philadelphia Phillies Club Ambassador and beloved former WPVI Action News 6 sports anchor, was a 2005 Hall of Fame honoree.

Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia is delighted to name Sue Serio as the 2025 Person of the Year. Sue Serio has been the Weather Anchor on Fox 29's Good Day Philadelphia since 1997. An Emmy award winner and supporter of numerous nonprofits, Sue was inducted into the Broadcast Pioneers Hall of Fame in 2017.

The 2025 Hall of Fame Honorees, in alphabetical order:

Monica Avery, 14-time Emmy Award-winning producer at CBS News Philadelphia, KYW-TV

'Lady B' Bahiyyah Clark, Pioneer Hip Hop rapper and award-winning Afternoon Host of 'The Lady B Show' on Classix 107.9, WPPZ FM

George Cummings, Retired Assistant General Manager and Adjunct Instructor for TUTV, Temple University Television, former Program/Operations Manager at FOX29, WTXF-TV

Jacqueline London, Emmy Award-winning anchor and reporter for NBC10, WCAU TV

Mike Monsell, Vice President – Marketing, Disney ABC Television Group, 6ABC, WPVI

Mike Quick, color commentator for Philadelphia Eagles radio broadcasts on WIP-FM 94.1 and former Eagles Wide Receiver

David Skalish, Director of Technical Operations at Audacy, Philadelphia

Andie Summers, Gracie and CMA winning host of 'The Andie Summers Show' morning show on 92.5 XTU, WXTU FM

David Yadgaroff, SVP and Market Manager for Audacy, Philadelphia

Tickets for the 2025 Gala will be available through the Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia website (www.broadcastpioneers.org) beginning in September.

For more information and sponsorship opportunities contact Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia Chairperson Leigh Richards at leighrichards2010@gmail.com or BPOP President, Lora Lewis at lora.lewis@bbgi.org.

About The Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia

Founded in 1962, The Broadcast Pioneers of Philadelphia is a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to honoring the rich broadcast history of Philadelphia, supporting the next generation of broadcasters through scholarships and educational opportunities and recognizing those who have made lasting contributions to our industry.

www.broadcastpioneers.org